

Questions

1. How many of these animals can fly?
2. How many of these animals have fur?

3. How many fluffy animals are there?
4. How many animals are blue?

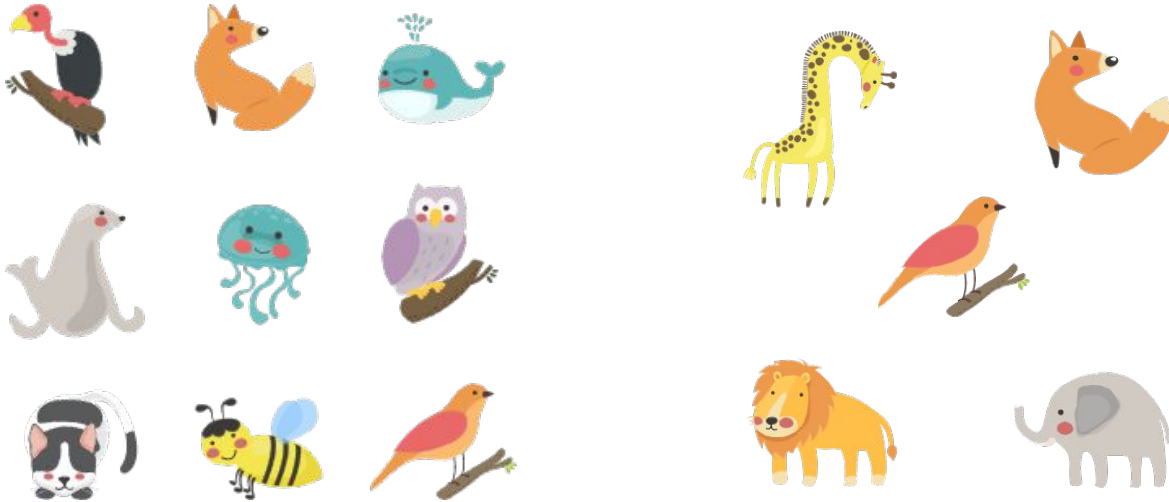

5. How many animals are there that like living in water?
6. How many animals are there that like living on land?

7. How many animals are there that roar?
8. How many herbivores are there?

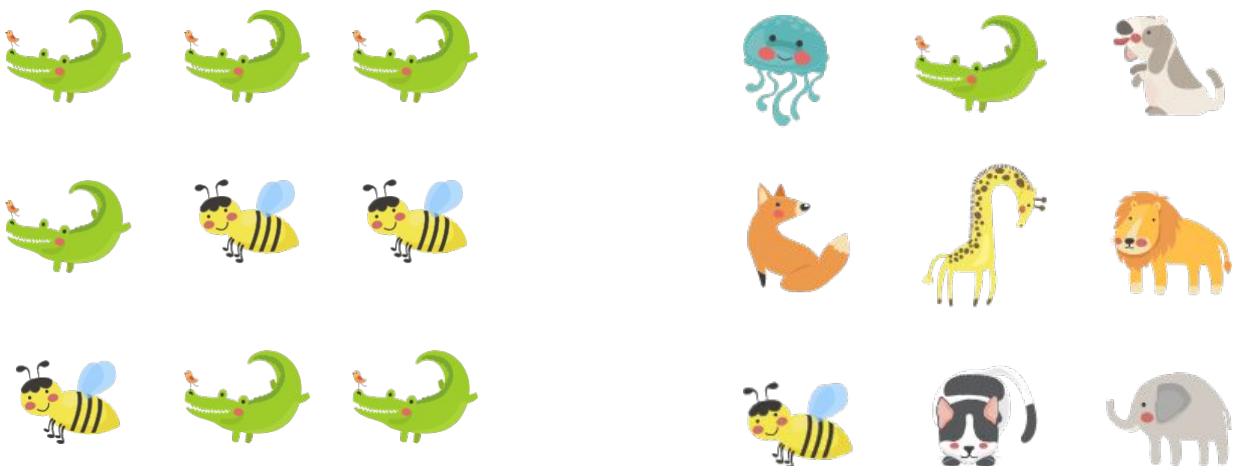

Grouping and Counting Word Problems for 1st Grade

Questions

- 9. How many of these animals live in the ocean?
- 10. How many of these animals have feathers?

- 11. How many animals have only two legs?
- 12. How many animals have four legs?

- 13. How many of these animals are green?

- 14. How many reptiles are there?
- 15. How many mammals are there?

Grouping and Counting Word Problems for 1st Grade

Answers

1. 4
The vulture, the owl, the robin and the bee can all fly. That's 4 animals!
2. 2
The fox and the cat both have fur. That's 2 animals.
3. 5
Cats are fluffy, jellyfish are not. There are 5 cats.
4. 4
Jellyfish are blue, cats are not. There are 4 jellyfish.
5. 2
The jellyfish and the crocodile like living in the water. It's still okay if you didn't count the crocodile.
6. 7
The dog, the fox, the giraffe, the lion, the bee, the cat and the elephant all like living on land. It's still okay if you counted the crocodile or if you didn't count the bee!
7. 4
Lions roar. Count the lions 1.. 2.. 3.. 4..
8. 2
Herbivores are animals that eat grass and plants, but not meat. Elephants are herbivores. Count them!
9. 2
The whale and the jellyfish like living in the ocean.
10. 3
The vulture, owl and robin have all got feathers because they are all birds!
11. 4
The giraffe, fox, lion and elephant each have 4 legs.
12. 1
The bird has 2 legs, all the other animals have 4 legs.
13. 6
The crocodiles are green, count them! 1.. 2.. 3.. 4.. 5.. 6..
14. 1
Reptiles have scales, not fur, and lay eggs. The crocodile is the only reptile in the picture.
15. 6
Mammals are animals that have live babies (not from hatched eggs) that drink milk from their mom.

